The EBRO ceiling uplight impresses with its modern and functional design. Two straight tubes, bent at the top, create an elegant line, while the rotatable uplight allows flexible light direction. The sand-colored and white matte metal body provides stability and timeless design. The frosted and clear glass shade distributes light evenly and glare-free. Measuring 350 mm in length and 310 mm in width, the integrated LED delivers 1800 lumens at 3000 K, providing a pleasant warm white light. The brightness is continuously adjustable via the rotary dimmer, allowing personalized lighting ambiance. The EBRO ceiling uplight combines modern design, high-quality materials, and practical LED technology, offering a stylish lighting solution for living or working spaces.
